ANAQUA Renewals Service - Keeping your IP portfolio current and patents in good standing are some of the most important responsibilities IP professionals have. Annuity deadlines, trademark renewals, fees, and methods of making payment vary widely from country to country. The laws governing annuities continue to evolve, making constant observation crucial. Missing an annuity date can lead to the loss of patent protection, disrupt product sales, and have a significant financial impact on your organization. Anaqua Services helps your IP team work efficiently and eliminate repetitive manual tasks, and ensures your payments are made in a timely manner. Our services team follows a proven implementation methodology for managing patent annuities and trademark renewals to ensure client satisfaction. We effectively manage deadlines so our clients derive the most value from their IP portfolio.

Manage Your Portfolio Efficiently
